ORANGEBURG, S. C., APRIL 11, 1879.

A young lady should not sing "Home, Sweet Home," for the benefit of her lover too early in the evening.

WE are under obligations to Senator M. C. Butler and Representatives M. P. O'Connor and D. Wyatt Aiken for special favors.

WE are credibly informed that the ate Southern Life Insurance Compamy is preparing to pay a dividend. Whether on stock or on policy account we are unable to say. It is known, however, that circulars have been sent to policy-holders to the effect that a dividend will be paid.

WE notice new lager bear signs over the doors of Messrs. D. E. Smoak, W. M. Sain, W. T. Lightfoot, A. Fischer and F. DeMars. The lettering on Mr. DeMars', we learn, was done by Mr. Ab. Moorer, who seems to be gifted in this kind of fancy work, and deserves credit for the proficiency acquired.

ATTENTION, EDISTO RIFLES !- Attend a regular quarterly meeting of your corps, at Engine Hall, Tuesday evening, April 15th, at half-past seven o'clock. A prompt and punctual attendance is earnestly requested. Members will please come prepared to pay their dues. By order Captain S. Dibble. G. A. NEUFFER, Jr., Secretary.

Our police force on Tuesday last broke into a gang of negro boys who were in the habit of prowling about the streets on Sundays annoying pedestrians by throwing brick-bats and otherwise endangering the persons of our citizens and disturbing the peace of the town. Ten or twelve of them were arrested and put in jail until they learn how to behave themselves. We hope this is but the beginning of what will be a complete abatement of call in at Mr. Walker's store, Money a long-standing nuisance.

OUR young merchant, Mr. A. B. Walker, is making good his claim to the leadership of low prices in our market. Be sure to read his advertisement of the largest and the best variety of fancy and staple groceries kept in Orangeburg, all of which he is determined to sell at prices to suit the times, at least ten or twenty per cent less than any house in town. THE cold snap of last week destroyed the hope of early vegetables and an abundant fruit crop. We hear complaints from every direction of the damage done, not only to the we saw a day or two since, and the gardens, but the corn and cotton fields, but hope the fears, so generally expressed may not be realized. On Thursday night there was a heavy white frost and plenty of ice, in some places a half inch thick; on Friday night, there being a light dew, the frost was not so heavy but the cold remained about the same.

THE Young Americas were out on parade last Tuesday and certainly presented a good appearance. When easily surpassed. Her twenty-sixth we look around upon the exposed condition of our town, upon the fine body of young men composing our fire department and upon the absolute worthless machines at their command, we involuntarily ask, what's the matter? The history of Orangeburg has been a sad one, yet it is, apparently, without a lesson to our people. I need money. I saw your bid for a story for which you offer $100 in gold. The offer pleases me. I see a sure plan of extricating myself from debt. This sum will come in handy. On the strength of it I have pursuaded my baker to give me thirty days longer for the little balance I owe him. I regard the money as mine already, provided you will do me a favor. As soon as I saw your notice I borrowed a ream of paper and some pens, and set to work. First I thought of a subject, and have been studying out that part ever since. Though after all it may not be so very essential, and I can get on without it. I have been writing along, however, about two pages. Somehow things don't appear to conglomerate so to speak. That is I can't get the characters in to suit me. They get mixed and tangled, and don't appear to develop any character whatever. Now there's the thrilling chapter devoted to the "Pinder Merchant," a most interesting subject I assure you-before I got down six wedlock by the bar-keeper next door. It is very astonishing somehow, but they don't seem so far to come in just right. Perhaps after awhile I'll my dear sir, that's only one part of a chapter.
